

CIVIL PENALTIES OWED
Last Updated: March 9, 2018

The following individuals owe the State of Nebraska civil penalties assessed by the Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Commission and/or interest on a civil penalty. The county of residence of the individual on the date of the assessment is also shown.

Art Baldrige- Pawnee County William Williams, Jr. - Douglas County

Patrick Cunningham- Cass County Ray Mossey- Sarpy County

John Hestermann- Lancaster County

This information is provided for use by election officials pursuant to the provisions of §49-14,142; §32-602 and §32-607 of the Revised Nebraska Statutes. Source: Laws 2017, LB 85

STATEMENTS OF FINANCIAL INTERESTS FILED BY CANDIDATES

To determine if a candidate has filed a Statement of Financial Interests go to <http://www.nadc.nebraska.gov> and do the following:

1. On the menu on the left click on View Campaign Filings
2. Click on Search
3. Type the last name of the candidate in the search box
4. Review the list of candidates and click on the name of the candidate you are seeking
5. From the list of filings, click on the latest filing date

Things to know about Statements of Financial Interests:

- Item 5 on the form shows the period covered.
- A candidate filing in December 2017 to appear on the 2018 ballot should have a Statement of Financial Interests on file covering 2016. Such candidates must file a new Statement of Financial Interests covering 2017 by March 1, 2018.
- A candidate filing in January 2018 or later to appear on the 2018 ballot should have a Statement of Financial Interests on file covering 2017.
- The information displayed on the website is not the complete statement on file.

If you have questions about a Statement of Financial Interests, call the Commission.