Synopsis Case #20-19
Action Taken on December 4, 2020

Respondent: Zachary Taylor

Zachary Taylor was a member of the Platte Township Board in Dodge County. The Respondent’s company did a series of road repairs for the Township and billed it in the amount of $4,000.00. Public officials are generally prohibited from having an interest in a contract with their governing bodies unless the contracts are entered into through an open and public process. These contracts were not entered into through an open and public process as required by §49-14,102 of the Nebraska Political Accountability and Disclosure Act (NPADA). In addition, the Respondent voted to pay a damage claim in the amount of $4,836.73 submitted by his company in violation of §49-14,101.01 of the NPADA which prohibits the use of public office for financial gain.

Based upon information received from the Auditor of Public Accounts, the Executive Director commenced a Preliminary Investigation on August 19, 2020 alleging that the Respondent had an interest in contracts with his governing body in violation of §49-14,102 of the NPADA. The Executive Director also alleged that the Respondent used his public office for financial gain in violation of §49-14,101.01 of the NPADA by voting to approve a damage claim submitted by Taylor Farms, the Respondent’s company. The parties entered into a settlement agreement by which the Commission found a violation of §49-14,102 relating to the contracts and a violation of §49-14,101.01 relating to the damage claim. By the terms of the agreement, the Respondent agreed to reimburse Platte Township for the damage claim in the amount of $4,836.73. The agreement also provides that the Respondent will pay a civil penalty of $250.00 for the violation of §49-14,102. It further provides that companion case #20-18 is dismissed.

The Commission approved the Settlement Agreement with 8 Commissioners concurring, no Commissioners dissenting, and no Commissioners abstaining.
